

Best House Builders

Last Updated Saturday, 09 January 2010

Well Now, lets take a look at another way You Can Save Time & Money building your New Home.

First of all, The Real Estate Savings Center qualifies builders with the help of [Profile.market] Realtors® who know the quality and the reputation of the builders in their local market areas.

We then contact these qualified builders for you to see if they are willing to offer you additional incentives when you present our unique Real Estate Savings Card. Many [Profile.market] house builders offer discounts, rebates and/or upgrades, as well as incentives on mortgage loans offered through their company, We just make it easier for you to locate the best builders who do.

So, for an easy way for you to enjoy additional savings when buying a new home anytime in the next 12-months, you can order your Free Real Estate Savings Card today. By sharing a little of your personal information with us we can share details and contact information on the [Profile.market] area house builders that honor The Card in any of the price points outlined below:

1. Standard -up to $300,000 - Neighborhood Homes in the [Profile.market] area built by Large Tract Builders are typically on small lots with a good selection of floor plans with good energy efficiency.
2. Upscale-$300,000-$600,000 - Semi-Custom [Profile.market] Homes built by large tract builders and others. Usually a larger lot and more privacy, a good selection of floor plans, and many upgrades to choose from.
3. Custom-$600,000-$1 Million - usually a custom builder will "build to suit" on your choice of your lot or theirs. These are larger homes in [Profile.market] with privacy, perhaps acreage, and/or a great view plus any and all custom features you may want.
4. Luxury - over $1 Million - in most areas anyway, although in some you may only be able to get a starter home at the low end of this price range. So you bring in your Architect, your Design Team and let the "craftsmen" builders match your dream home to that magnificent piece of property you have picked out in anywhere in the greater [Profile.market] tri-county area.

To receive your Free Real Estate Savings Card mailed to your residence, and receive details on [Profile.market] home builders sent to your email you can submit the following short form.

Estimated Additional New Home Savings with your Real Estate Savings Card can be about 1% of the purchase price (for example $4,000 on a $400,000 home). All Compliments of your preferred [Profile.market] builder and/or a Buyer's Agent that is a member of The Real Estate Savings Center Network.
